

ANANYA

Arunodaya (Sunrise) for Blind
Curriculum: Part 1

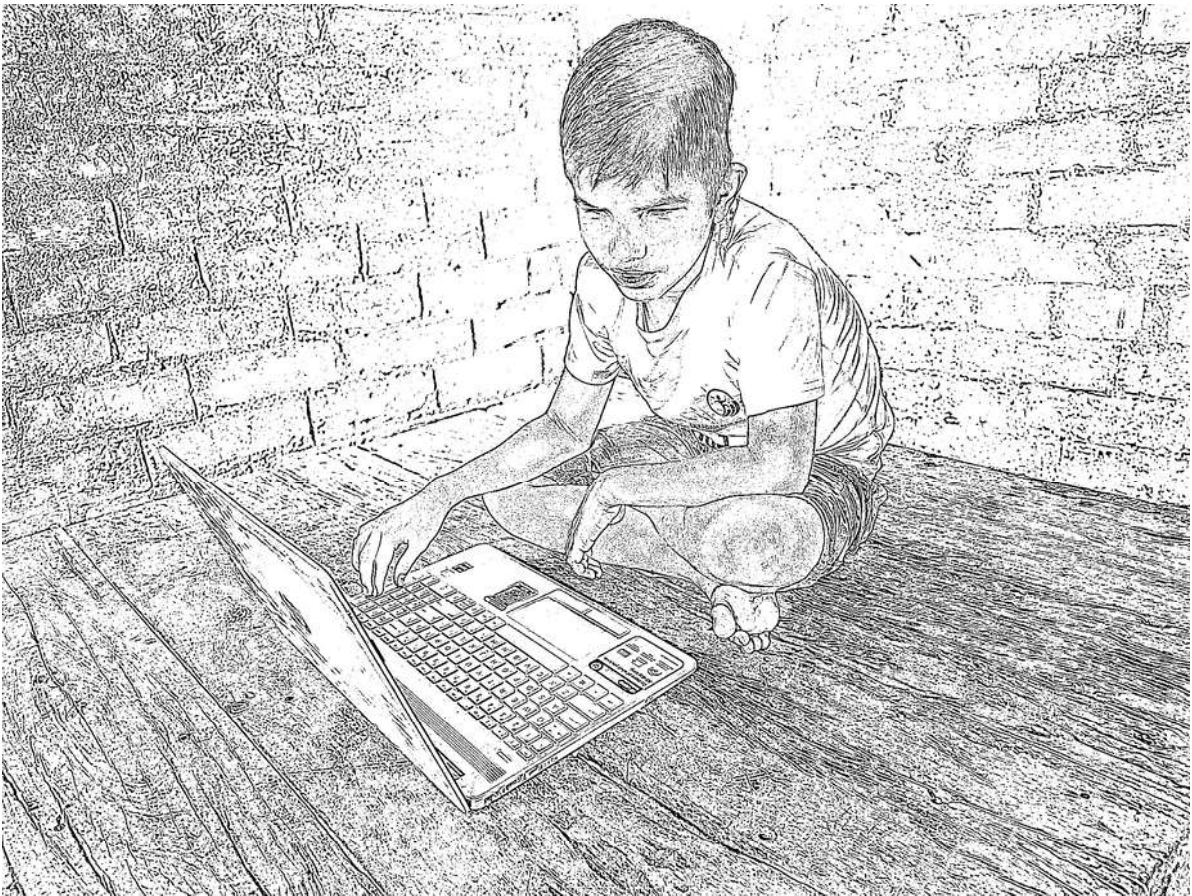

Table of Contents

Preface	i
Aims and Objectives of the Arunodaya (Sunrise) for Blind Program	ii
Acknowledgement	iv
Significance of Education for Children with Visual Impairment	1
Aims of Arunodaya (Sunrise) for Blind Program	2
Objectives of Ananya Curriculum	2
Chapter 1: Independent Living Skills	4
Introduction	4
Learning Outcomes for the Chapter	4
How Differently Children with Vision Impairment Learn Daily Living Skills from Sighted Children	5
Guidelines for Teaching Independent Living Skills	5
Personal Hygiene and Grooming	5
Managing Personal Belongings	6
Personal Care	7
Assessment Strategies	8
Chapter 02: Orientation and Mobility Skills	10
Introduction	10
Learning Outcomes for the Chapter	10
Orientation	11
Searching Techniques	13
Sighted Guide/Human Guide	14
Narrow Space Strategy	16
Offering Chair Strategy	16
Using a Staircase	17

Opening a Doorway	18
Pre-Cane Technique	19
Cane Techniques	20
Protective Techniques	22
Assessment Strategies	24
Chapter 03: Compensatory Functional Skills	25
Introduction	25
Learning Outcomes for the Chapter	25
Braille	26
Abacus	29
Taylor Frame	30
Assessment Strategies	31
Chapter 04: Sensory Training	33
Introduction	33
Tactile Sensitivity Training	33
Auditory Sensory Training	34
Gustatory Sensory Training	35
Olfactory Sensitivity Training	35
Distance and Spatial Awareness	36
Positioning of Braille Dots	36
Assessment Strategies	37
Chapter 05: Assistive Technology	39
Introduction	39
Use of Smartphone	39
Use of Laptop	41
Use of Daisy Player	44
Assessment Strategies	47

Appendix	48
(A) Baseline/Midline/Endline Surveys and Tests	48
(B) Monthly Tests	49
(C) General Pedagogical Processes to Teach Children with Visual Impairment	50

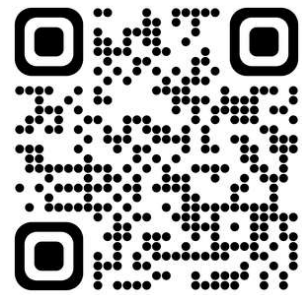

We thank you for your support!

Follow us on Instagram

Contact Us

+91 91-0519-0002
www.ekkadamaur.org

Follow us on
LinkedIn

